

Emil Anderegg
Jan. 2, 1895 - July 6, 1977

A retired Mt. Pleasant Township farmer, Emil Anderegg, 82, Rt. 1, Monticello, died Wednesday, July 6, in St. Clare Hospital. He entered the hospital on July 4.

His funeral was held on Saturday, July 9, in the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello, with his pastor Rev. Charles G. Workman officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

The son of Jacob and Verena Reich Anderegg, he was born in Canton St. Gallen, Switzerland, on Jan. 2, 1895. After receiving his schooling in Switzerland, he came to the United States in 1913 where he worked on Green County area farms.

On Dec. 10, 1931, he and Elizabeth Fischer were married in Monroe. After their marriage they farmed in Argyle for 16 years, moving to Brooklyn and farming there for another 16 years. They retired to their home in Monticello in 1965.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth; a daughter, Mrs. William A. (Rosalyn) Legler, Rt. 1, Brooklyn; a son, Bernard E. Anderegg, Rigby, Idaho; three brothers, Jonas, Monroe; and Johan and Eugene in Switzerland; a sister, Mrs. Anna Locher, Benton, and six grandchildren.

Preceding him in death were his parents, five brothers and sisters.

He was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello.

Pallbearers were John Anderegg, Belvidere, Ill.; Walter R. Fischer and Norman Nall, both of Argyle; Joseph Frick and Josef H. Lehnherr, both of Monticello; and Ted Mellenberger, South Wayne.

Voegeli Funeral Service was in charge of arrangements.
