

Emma F. Babler
July 21, 1893 - February 12, 1979

Mrs. J. L. (Emma) Babler, 85, Monroe, died Monday, Feb. 12, in her home from an apparent coronary attack. She had been in failing health for the past few years.

Funeral services were held Friday, Feb. 16, in the Stuessy Funeral Home, Monroe. The Rev. W. C. Koehler of St. John's Church officiated. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery.

The former Emma F. Feldt, was born July 21, 1893, in Dutch Hollow, Sylvester Township. On Jan. 10, 1912, she was married in her parents home to Jacob Lee Babler, who had been in the garage business in Monroe. He died Dec. 28, 1970.

She has lived in the Monroe area her entire lifetime.

Survivors are two sons, Duane, Monticello, and Myron, Monroe; one daughter, Mrs. Leonard Drews, Oshkosh; nine grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; a brother, Harvey Feldt, Madison, and a sister, Mrs. Fred Hahlen, Brodhead.