

Percy J. Bartlett Sr.
Oct. 31, 1881 - March 3, 1971

A native of Attica, Green County, Percy J. Bartlett Sr., 89, Danvers, Minn., died there March 3 and the funeral was held Saturday, March 6.

A daughter, Mrs. Herbert (Mary) Striker, Albany, was called to Danvers by his illness and death.

Mr. Bartlett was born Oct. 31, 1881, a son of Chauncey and Anna Maynard Bartlett. He married Myrta Norton, a native of Brooklyn Township, in 1905. They farmed in the Attica area until moving to a farm near Danvers in 1913.

Surviving are two sons, Percy and Lyle, both of Danvers; two other daughters, Mrs. Leona Bowers, Danvers, and Mrs. Dorothy Eggerstrom, Oceanside, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. May Kittleson and Mrs. Harry (Grace) Edwards, and a brother, Joe Bartlett, all of Albany; 18 grandchildren, and several great-grandchildren.

His wife died in December 1966; a son, Homer, Benson, Minn., September, 1967.

NOTE: Interred in the Church of the Visitation, Danvers, Minn.