Mrs. Katie Becker, 72, Monroe, Dies

Mrs. Katie Becker, 72 years of age, former esteemed resident of Monticello, was found dead Friday night in a woodshed near her home in Monroe.

Deputy Coroner George Armstrong said death resulted from a heart attack.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 Monday afternoon in the Stuessy funeral home, Monroe. The Rev. A. R. Achtemeier, pastor of the Zwingli Evangelical and Reformed church, officiated, and burial was in Highland cemetery here.

Mrs. Becker, whose maiden name was Lutzy, was born in Monroe township. She was united in marriage to Jacob J. Becker in March, 1900, the ceremony taking place in Monticello. Mr. and Mrs. Becker farmed in Washington township, moved to Monticello, where they lived for 10 years, then farmed near Juda until Mr. Becker's death in 1949. Mrs. Becker moved to Monroe four years ago.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Barbara Rhyner, Monticello, and Mrs. Mary Riese, Monroe.
