

Edward J. Benkert
March 30 1930 - Feb. 17, 1967

Edward J. Benkert, 37, Hanover, Ill., died Friday night in a Maywood, Ill. hospital, after a long illness.

He was born in Monroe and was graduated from Monticello High school, served in the Korean war, and was married in 1961 to Janet Maloney. He was a bookkeeper in the business office of the Chicago theater.

He is survived by his wife; two daughters, Cindy and Nikki, at home; his mother Ethel, Monticello; one brother, Norman, Monticello; and six sisters, Mrs. Joseph Diehl, Rockford, Ill.; Mrs. Paul Schroepfer, Belleville; Mrs. Thelma Moore, Monroe; Mrs. James Dillman, Amheurst, N.Y.; Mrs. Sylvan Bidlingmaier; Monticello; and Mrs. Frank Segbart, Antigo.

Arrangements are pending at the Voegeli Funeral Home, Monticello.

NOTE: Interred in Highland cemetery, Monticello.