

Katherine A. Christen
May 2, 1903 - July 18, 1980

Mrs. Katherine A. Christen, 77, Monticello, died July 18, at Finley Hospital, Dubuque, Iowa. She had been hospitalized since June 21.

Born May 2, 1903, in Dane County, she was the daughter of Jacob A. and Marie Hammerly Buol. On Jan. 24, 1922, she was married to Wilbert Christen in Belleville. They farmed in Mt. Pleasant Township until 1950 when they moved to Monticello.

She was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Ladies Aid Society, Women's Relief Corps, and the East Mt. Pleasant Homemakers Club.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, July 22, at the church with Rev. Charles G. Workman officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

Survivors include one son, Wilbert, rural Monticello; one daughter, Mrs. LeRoy (Norma) Trumpy, rural Orangeville, Ill; two brothers, Walter and Jacob Buol, Belleville; four sisters, Mrs. Herman (Marie) Schupbach, Monroe, Mrs. James (Lena) Nevel, Brooklyn; Mrs. Charles (Rose) Carnes, Brookfield, Ohio, and Ida Toltzien, Tucson, Ariz.; and six grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, August, 1977, and one brother, Gabriel Buol.

Pallbearers were nephews, Herbert Blaser, Calvin Christen and Joseph G. Buol, Belleville, John A. Christen, Brooklyn, Philip Nevel, Evansville, and Bernard Peterson, Madison.

Voegeli Funeral Service was in charge of arrangements.