

Jessie V. Cordes
September 26, 1873 – February 11, 1927
Mrs. Andrew Cordes Dies After Long Illness

EVANSVILLE—Mrs. Andrew Cordes, 53, died at her home on North Fourth street Friday morning, after a lingering illness. She had been an invalid for 13 years.

She was born in Attica, September 26, 1873, and was married February 24, 1904 to Andrew Cordes at Belleville. They lived on a farm near Attica until 1913, when they moved to Evansville, where she has since lived. She is survived by her husband, two brothers, George Keylock, this city, and Ed Keylock, of La Valle; one sister, Mrs. Sarah Canfield, of Albany, Wis., and several nephews and nieces,

Funeral services were held from the home at 12:30 Sunday, and from the church at 3 p. m., the Rev. Saunderson officiating, Burial was in the Attica cemetery.