

Adeline Cunningham
Aug. 17, 1856 - May 23, 1927

Mrs. Adeline Cunningham was born in Woodstock, Ill. in 1854. She spent her early girlhood near Albany, Wis. where she formed many lasting friends. She was married to Wm. Cunningham of Dayton, Wis., where she spent most of her life on a farm near Belleville, Wis., where she enjoyed the friendship of a large number of friends. Mr. Cunningham preceded her in death sixteen years ago. About ten years ago she moved to Monroe, Wis., where she lived until one year ago when failing health necessitated her removal to a Sister's Hospital in Milwaukee.

She leaves an adopted son, Charles Cunningham, a brother James Murray of Denver, Col., and a number of nieces and nephews.

Her remains were brought to the home of a niece Mrs. E. J. O'Connor of Belleville and the funeral services were conducted by Rev. Father Zingen at St. Mary's Church and interment was made at St. James Cemetery, Dayton.

NOTE: Nee Murray. This obit gives birth year as 1854 but tombstone has birth year of 1856.
