

John Elmer

March 15, 1939 - July 6, 1993

John Elmer, 54, Monticello, died Tuesday, July 6, 1993, in Rock Haven Nursing Home, Janesville.

He was born March 15, 1939, in Washington Township, the son of Conrad and Rosina B. (Duerst) Elmer Jr. He lived with his mother in Monticello until her death. He then lived in a foster home in Brodhead with Orville and Audrey Brooks. Mr. Elmer worked at Greenco, Monroe.

Survivors include three brothers, Melvin and Vernon, Monroe, and Sylvan, Brodhead; six sisters, Mrs. Velma (Darius) Rankins, Evansville; Mrs. Doris (Casper) Aebly, Charlotte Tresner, and Mrs. Mabel (Duane) Shippy, all of Monroe; Mrs. Irene (Hans) Neuenschwander, Madison; and Mrs. Carolyn (David) Pederson, Lodi.

He was preceded in death by his father, Aug. 4, 1962; mother, Sept. 4, 1991; a sister, Elfa Wenger, July 9, 1951; and a brother, Harvey Elmer, Jan. 15, 1990.

Graveside services were held Friday, July 9 at Highland Cemetery, Monticello. The Rev. Dan Herman, former pastor of Washington Reformation Church officiated.

A memorial was established for the Apostolate to the Handicapped.