Mrs. Ursula Elmer, 82, Esteemed Local Lady, Dies Sunday Aged Local Resident Dies At Hospital Following Stroke Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Ursula Elmer, 82 years of age, esteemed and highly respected Monticello resident for the past 40 years, who passed away at 9 o'clock, Sunday night in the St. Clare hospital, Monroe, where she had been a patient since the previous Tuesday, were conducted at 2 Wednesday afternoon in the Zwingli Evangelical and Reformed church here.

The Rev. Alvin C. Rabehl, pastor of the Immanuel Evangelical church, Monroe, officiated in the absence of the Rev. A. R. Achtemeier, regular pastor. Burial was in Highland cemetery.

Suffered Stroke

Mrs. Elmer suffered a cerebral hemorrhage on Tuesday of last week at her home here and was taken to the hospital, where the best medical aid available failed to bring about any improvement in her condition. A number of years ago Mrs. Elmer was a patient at the hospital for many weeks suffering from a broken hip, which resulted from a fall. Close friends feared for her chances of recovery at that time but Mrs. Elmer, although frail in physical stature, recovered remarkably well and through untiring efforts was soon able to walk with little difficulty.

She was born May 6, 1863, in Waukesha county, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wolfgang Lindner. She attended schools in Milwaukee and was married there March 20, 1883, to Joseph Elmer. They moved to a farm a mile and a half west of Monticello, where they made their home until 1905, when they moved to Monticello to reside. The farm is now operated by a grandson, Clarence H. Elmer.

Mrs. Elmer was a member of the Zwingli Evangelical and Reformed church and the Ladies' Aid society, in which she was active for more than 60 years.

The many people who were acquainted with Mrs. Elmer entertained a deep and lasting respect for her and news of her passing has occasioned sincere regret among them all,

Survivors include a son, Henry C. Elmer, Monticello; a daughter, Mrs. Matt H. Stauffacher, Monroe; two grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Louise Ristow and Mrs. Emily Nacker, both of Milwaukee. Her husband died July 12, 1933, a son, Edgar, died in infancy, and the parents, a brother, and two sisters also preceded her in death,
