

Gladys Frautschy

Nov. 23, 1901 - January 31, 1966

Rites Set Today for Mrs. Frautschy, 64

Mrs. Merle E. Frautschy, age 64, Marshfield, died Monday at 3 p. m. at St. Joseph's hospital in Marshfield after a lingering illness.

Born in Albany Nov. 23, 1901, Gladys Jones was a daughter of Ira and Amelia Pope Jones. She was graduated from the Albany high school and the Green county normal school. She taught in Green county rural schools for two years before her marriage on Sept. 27, 1922, to Merle Frautschy, Monticello. They lived in Albany and Evansville until 1960, when they moved to Marshfield. Since then she had been employed at the Marshfield Credit Bureau.

She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star.

She is survived by one son, Robert M., Marshfield; one brother, Robert Jones, Albany; two sisters, Mrs. Frank Watts, Brooklyn, and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, Belleville; and two grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband Jan. 18, 1963.

Funeral Here Thursday

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. today (Thursday) at the Voegeli funeral home here. The Rev. John L. Walker will officiate and interment will be in Highland cemetery here.

Eastern Star services were conducted at the Voegeli funeral home at 8 p. m. Wednesday.