Miss Louise Gempeler Dies Suddenly Friday; Rites Held Monday

Striking with a lightning-like suddenness which stunned the entire community and plunged it into sadness, death claimed the life of Miss Louise E Gempeler, 50 years of age, highly esteemed Monticello resident, at 10: 20 a.m. Friday.

Miss Gempeler passed away in the St. Clare hospital, Monroe, where she had been a patient for only four days.

Funeral services were held at 2 Monday afternoon at Zwingli United Church of Christ with burial in Highland cemetery. Pallbearers were Alfred Gempeler, Freeport; Jacob Gempeler, and Walter Gempeler, Footville; Werner Haessig, Monroe; Otto Stauffacher, Orfordville, and John Stauffer, Monticello.

Born in Washington township, Aug. 29, 1908, she was the daughter of Ernest and Emma Stauffacher Gempeler. She graduated from the Monticello high school in 1926. She had always lived with her parents on the farm, a short distance southwest of Monticello, and moved to the village with them in 1950.

Will be Deeply Missed

Miss Gempeler will be deeply missed by her many friends and acquaintances throughout the community. A tireless worker, she was continually helping others. she gained satisfaction just to be helping someone in need.

She is survived by her parents, one brother, Fred E., on the Gempeler farm, and one sister, Mrs. Raymond Luchsinger. She was preceded in death by twin sisters in infancy.
