

Bernice E. Gill

Feb. 18, 1913 - Aug. 8, 1975

Mrs. William (Bernice E.) Gill, 62, Albany, died in St. Clare Hospital yesterday, Aug. 8 at 10:50 a.m. after a long illness. She had been admitted to the hospital as a medical patient on Aug. 1.

Born Feb. 18, 1913, in Green County, she was the daughter of John Jacob and Elizabeth Rhyner Disch. She attended Albany schools and lived in the Monticello and Albany area her entire life. She was married to William Gill on Dec. 21, 1944, in Monticello. She had worked at Advance Transformer for six years.

Surviving are her husband William, her parents, and four sisters, Mrs. Milton (Mildred) Krueger, Evansville; Mrs. LaVerne (Pauline) Duerst, DeForest; Mrs. Robert (Gladys) Gempeler and Mrs. Kenneth (Norma) Frydenlund, both of Albany.

She was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello, and the Royal Neighbors of America.

Funeral services will be held Monday, Aug. 11 at 1:30 p.m. in the Gohlke-Sharer Funeral Home with Rev. Charles G. Workman of the Zwingli Church officiating. Burial will be in Attica Cemetery. Visitation will be at the funeral home Sunday from 4 to 8 p.m.