

Fred G. Haldiman
March 18, 1910 – December 11, 1972

Funeral rites for Fred G. Haldiman, 62, who died Monday at home after an apparent heart attack, have been set for Friday. He married the former Helen Roethlisberger in 1944. He was a farmer until 1963. He moved to Monticello and was employed at the Green County Farm Cooperative. He retired in 1971.

Mr. Haldiman was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, the Monticello Union Lodge and the American Legion. He was a former member of the Monticello Board of Education.

Surviving are his wife; sons, James F., New Glarus and Robert J., Monticello and sisters, Miss Zelma Haldiman, Mrs. Erwin Spring, both of Monroe and Mrs. Merlin Feind of Appleton.

Interment was in Highland Cemetery, Monticello.