

Olga Hefty

Feb. 10, 1897 - June 24, 1964

Rites Held for Mrs. Jacob B. Hefty, 67

Funeral services for Mrs. Jacob B. Hefty, 67, New Glarus, who died early on Wednesday morning of last week at her home after an extended illness, were held at 1:30 p. m. Friday in the Zentner funeral home in New Glarus.

The Rev. Howard Beil, Belleville, officiated in the absence of Rev. Linus Wierwill, pastor of the Swiss United Church of Christ, New Glarus. Burial was in the Swiss Evangelical and Reformed cemetery, New Glarus.

Mrs. Hefty was the former Olga Blum, daughter of Jacob and Rosa Theiler Blum. She was born in Washington township on Feb. 10, 1897, and was married March 6, 1919, to Jacob B. Hefty. They farmed on the Hefty homestead farm, southwest of New Glarus, until retiring to the village in December, 1963.

She was a member of the Swiss United Church of Christ.

Surviving are her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Harvey P. Elmer, Monticello, and Miss Lorene, at home, who is employed at Monroe; a son, Lawrence J., on the home farm; two sisters, Mrs. Jacob Heim and Mrs. Edwin S. Kennedy, Madison, and two grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents,