

Mrs. Anna Kelling
June 29, 1877 – June 25, 1958

MONTICELLO – Funeral services, for Mrs. Anna Kelling, 81, Goldfield, Iowa, a native of Monticello, who died in Goldfield on Wednesday, will be held there Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Kelling had spent several months in Monticello with relatives during each of the past two summers. She was born in this vicinity June 29, 1877, and was the former Anna Babler, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Babler Sr. Her husband, Ed Kelling, preceded her in death.

She and her husband farmed in North Dakota and Iowa before retiring to Goldfield.

Mrs. Kelling is survived by one son, Alvin, on the home farm near Goldfield; her stepmother, Mrs. Henry Babler Sr., Monticello two brothers, Henry E. Babler, Monticello, and Jacob Babler, Monroe; two half-brothers, Clarence, Richland Center, and Herman, Monticello; and two half-sisters, Mrs. R. J. Theiler, 4146 Nakoma Rd., Madison, and Mrs. J. F. Freitag, Monroe.