

Carrie M. Knight
Feb. 9, 1879 - April 6, 1956
Carrie Knight Stricken at 77

Miss Carrie M. Knight, 77, a graduate of the old Deaconess Hospital at Monroe, died at 1:15 a. m. today at St. Clare hospital where she had been a medical patient since March 6.

Miss Knight, who lived at 1420 10th street, had been ill several months from a heart condition.

She was born Feb. 9, 1879 in Brodhead, the daughter of Adelbert and Imogene Taft Knight. She attended Monticello schools and lived in Hampton, Ia., before coming to Monroe in 1918. After her graduation from the Deaconess hospital she worked at a Belvidere, Ill. hospital.

There are no close relatives. Her mother died the year she was born; her father in 1914, and her stepmother, Nellie Knight, in 1928. Miss Knight attended the Methodist church.

Services will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. in Shriner-Neushwander funeral home. Rev. Glen H. Ridnour, pastor of First Methodist church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Monticello cemetery.