April 3, 1990 – August 9, 1961

Jesse Koeshall, 61, Monticello, Succumbs

Jesse G. Koeshall, 61, a resident of Monticello for the past 15 years, died at 6:30 Wednesday morning in the St. Clare hospital, Monroe, where he had been a patient for two days.

Mr. Koeshall had been in failing health from a heart condition for the past year and a half.

He was born at Westfield on April 3, 1990, the son of William and Ida Schultz Koeshall. He attended schools in the Wautoma area. In 1941 he was united in marriage to Alma Wenger, the ceremony taking place in St. Louis, Mo. They made their home in Racine before moving to Monticello in 1946. Mr. Koeshall was employed as a route salesman for the W. T. Rawleigh Co., Freeport.

He was a member of the Assembly of God church, Monroe.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Tom, at home; four brothers, Reuben, Bancroft, Merritt, Wisconsin Rapids, Harley, Racine, and Vernon, Beloit; and two sisters, Mrs. Chester Cumberland, Racine, and Mrs. John Hintz, Saxeville.

He was preceded in death by two brothers and one sister.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon, at a time to be announced later, at the EUB church, Monticello. The Rev. W. C. Anderson, of the Assembly of God church, Monroe, will officiate, and burial will be in the Greenwood cemetery, Monroe.
