

Kathryn Kubly
April 14, 1884 – March 4, 1974

Mrs. Kathryn Kubly, 89, died March 4, in Pleasant View Nursing Home. She had been in failing health several years and had been in the nursing home since March 1, 1968. The former Kathryn Blumer was born in Dutch Hollow, April 14, 1884, a daughter of Hilarius and Rosina Marty Blumer.

On Oct. 25, 1902, she was married to Henry Kaderly. He died in March 1933. In May 1937 she married J. P. Kubly, who died in January 1968. The Kubly had resided at 2012 17th Ave. for many years. She was a member of St. John's United Church of Christ.

Mrs. is survived by four stepsons, Chester, Ben, Glenn L., and Paul Kubly, all of Monroe, and a sister, Mrs. Rose Krueger, Monticello. She was preceded in death by four brothers, Jake, Matt, Henry, and Joe Blumer, and a sister, Mrs. Sophia Babler.

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 6, in Stuessy Funeral Home. Rev. W.C. Koehler of St. John's Church is to officiate. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery. Visitation is after 2 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home.