

Magdalena Legler
Nov. 6, 1865 – May 1, 1950

Mrs. Legler Rites

MONTICELLO — Funeral services for Mrs. Magdalena Legler, 84, Warren, Illinois, former resident of Monticello, who died Monday at a Freeport hospital, will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Voegeli funeral home here. Paul Miller, Forreston, Illinois, will officiate and burial will be in Highland cemetery, Monticello.

Born in Washington township near Monticello to John and Anna Baumgartner. She was married here in 1892 to George Legler. She lived in Monticello for two years after her marriage, moving then to a farm near Argyle. In 1920, she moved to Monroe where she lived until moving to Warren several years ago.

Survivors include two sons, William G., of Warren, and Ernest J., Argyle; three sisters, Mrs. Ernest Gore and Mrs. Lydia Rolph, Cambridge, Md., and Mrs. Anna Twilley, Washington, D.C.; three brothers, Otto, Herman, and Reuben Baumgartner all of Alem, Md.; five grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.