

Rosa K. Legler

Jan. 12, 1889 - December 18, 1974

Rosa Legler, 85, Died on Wednesday

Mrs. Rosa K. Legler, 85, Monticello, died Wednesday, Dec. 18, shortly before noon after leaving a doctor's office on her way home.

She was born on Jan. 12, 1889, the former Rosa K. Marty, daughter of John C. and Rosina Hefty Marty. She attended Marty rural school and was married Oct. 3, 1907, to Herman G. Legler. They farmed the Legler homestead farm in New Glarus Township and then moved to Robinson, N. D., where they also farmed. Mr. Legler died in 1959,

Mrs. Legler had been making her home with a nephew, Lawrence F. Marty, in Monticello, since 1960.

She is survived by a brother, Ed. W. Marty, Monticello; three sisters, Mrs. Robert (Bertha) Holcomb, Sr.; Mrs. O. D. (Sylvia) Curtis, Monticello; and Mrs. Ira (Hulda) Holcomb, Monroe; two granddaughters and five great-grandchildren.

Preceding her in death were her husband, two sons, Clarence and Lawrence, both in North Dakota; two sisters, Mrs. Wilbert Zweifel and Mrs. Henry Gessler, New Glarus; three brothers, Fred C. Marty, Monticello; Jacob M. Marty, New Glarus; and Walter J. Marty, Belleville.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Dec. 19, in the Zwingli Church Memorial Lounge in Monticello, with Rev. Charles G. Workman officiating. On Friday, the remains were flown to Jamestown, N. D., where graveside services were conducted on Saturday, Dec. 21 in Sunset Memorial Garden Cemetery in Jamestown.

Attending the funeral services from New Glarus were Mrs. Bertha M. Marty, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Marty, Mr. and Mrs. William Marty, Morris Marty, Mrs. Dora Ott and Miss Fay Zentner.