May 3, 1803 – June 14, 1854

Thomas Lemon, an early settler of Green County, was a native of Centre County, Pennsylvania, born in 1802 [1803].

He was there married to Sarah Gunsalus, who was born in the same county, in 1815 [1816].

He was a weaver by trade, which occupation he followed in Centre county, until 1843.

He then came to Wisconsin and spent one year in Lafayette county, then came to Green county. He rented a farm, one year, in the town of Sylvester, then went to New Glarus and bought government land on section 35, where he built a log cabin and cleared a portion of the land.

He died in that town, June 14, 1854, leaving a wife and six children ~ James, Catharine, William, Thomas, Amanda and Maria.

The family continued to live in New Glarus for a number of years, and made considerable improvement upon the farm, but they are now scattered. James lives in Custer Co., Nebraska; Catharine is dead; William and Thomas reside in Washington township; Amanda is the wife of Jacob North, and living in Chase County, Kansas. Maria is the wife of Frank Loveland.
