Jesse Earle Lewis, eldest child and only son of Silas and Elizabeth Lewis was born February 10, 1887 in Mt. Pleasant Township, Green County, Wisconsin, and died at his home, Tuesday April 20, 1926, after a lingering illness of about two years duration.

He received this education in the home school, and also attended Bethel Academy. On June 19, 1913, he was united in marriage to Flora E. Templeton, of Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin. To this union was born, one son, Harland.

The greater part of his life was spent on the farm; part of his married life on his grandfather Lewis's farm, and the last few years on the home place.

About two years ago, he and his wife went to La Crosse, Wis. where he received treatments, but the desired results were not secured. Nearly three months ago, he was brought home, where he was cared for by loving hands until April 20th when the Lord saw best to relieve him of his sufferings and claim him as His,

He was a member of the Albany Seventh-Day Adventist church, a true son, loving husband and father.

He leaves to mourn a wife, son, father and mother, two sisters, a foster brother, and a host of relatives and friends, who mourn but are not without hope.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon at one o'clock from the home, and interment was in Exeter cemetery. Services were conducted by Elder George Butler of Madison.
