

Charles W. Liebundgut

Feb. 22, 1884 - April 7, 1959

C. W. Liebundgut, Monticello, Dies

Charles W. Liebundgut, 75, rural Monticello, died at 9:30 p.m. yesterday in St. Clare hospital after a long illness.

Mr. Liebundgut was born in Blooming Grove, Dane County, on Feb. 22, 1884, the son of Ernest and Mathilda Brown Hahn. The parents died while he was quite young and he adopted the name of the family with whom he made his home, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Liebundgut.

He attended Green County schools and later farmed. Mr. Liebundgut never married. He attended the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello.

For the past 40 years he made his home with the Fred C. Elmers, rural Monticello.

Survivors are a brother, John Hahn, Seattle, Wash.; a half-brother, Ernest Hahn, Belleville; two sisters, Mrs. Bertha Bandi and Mrs. William F. Schmerse, both of Monroe, and two half-sisters, Mrs. Lena Steffen, Colby, and Miss Martha Hahn, Argyle. He was preceded in death by a sister, Emma.

Services are pending at the Stuessy funeral home. Burial will be in Greenwood cemetery.