

William Loughead
October 28, 1863 - Feb. 24, 1947

William Loughead, 85, died at his home in Chokio, Minn. Monday following an illness. The body is being brought to Evansville by train, to the Allen funeral home, where funeral services will be held at 2 PM, Friday. The Rev. H. A. Granbner, pastor of the Evansville Methodist church will officiate.

Burial will be in the Attica cemetery in the family lot.

Mr. Loughead was born on a farm a short distance north of Attica. He married Lillie Bartlett, a daughter of Joseph Bartlett, a native of Wiltshire, England, who came to Green county and in 1851 settled at Attica where he operated a grist and flour mill for many years. Mrs. Loughead died at Chokio in 1939 and is buried at Attica cemetery. Survivors are an only child, a daughter, Gladys, at home, and a brother, George Loughead.

Mr. Loughead formerly resided at Attica and Belleville and left here about 50 years ago. He has many relatives here who plan to attend funeral services.
