Mrs. Luchsinger, 50, Dies Early Thursday After Long Illness

The community was plunged into sadness when it was learned that Mrs. Raymond J. Luchsinger, 50 years of age, life-long area resident, passed away at 12:45 a. m. Thursday at her home at the south edge of the village after an illness of several months' duration.

Frieda K. Gempeler was born in Washington township on Oct. 4, 1913, the daughter of Ernest and Emma Stauffer Gempeler. She graduated from the Monticello high school in 1931. On Oct. 10, 1940, she was united in marriage to Raymond Luchsinger, the ceremony taking place in Monticello. They farmed southwest of the village and since 1947 had resided on the present farm.

Mrs. Luchsinger was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello.

She is survived by her husband; three sons, Donald, Monticello, and Richard and Gene, at home; three daughters, Marian, Madison, and Carol and Linda, at home; and one brother, Fred E. Gempeler, Monticello.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Dec. 11, 1960; her father, Dec. 24, 1959; one sister, Louise, Sept. 5, 1958, and twin sisters in infancy.

Funeral Held Sunday

Funeral services were held at 2 Sunday afternoon at Zwingli United Church of Christ. The Rev. J. Allan Mittler, church pastor, officiated, and burial was in Highland cemetery. Pallbearers were Arthur Babler, Madison, Willis Elmer, Walter Hammerly, Lawrence H. Karlen, Edwin Schlittler and Jacob Wittenwyler.
