

Jacob H. Marty

Nov. 20, 1891 - May 1, 1984

Funeral services were held Friday, May 4, for Jacob H. Marty, 92, Monroe, who died May 1, 1984, at Pleasant View Nursing Home, Monroe, following a short illness.

He was born in Mt. Pleasant Township, Green County, on Nov. 20, 1891, the son of John and Anna Babler Marty, who were early township pioneers.

A farmer most of his life, he farmed in Mt. Pleasant before moving to Monroe in 1952, and maintained an active interest in his farm operation until recently. He was a confirmed member of Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello.

Services were held in the Zwingli Church memorial lounge with the Rev. Charles G. Workman officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery, Monticello.

Survivors include a brother, Herman, Reno, Nev., and a sister, Mrs. Christ (Anna) Balsiger, Monroe.

Preceding him in death were his father in 1938; his mother in 1950; four brothers, Mathias, in 1958, John in 1971, Adam in 1972 and Henry in 1981; two sisters, Barbara in 1887, and Marie, March 4, 1984.

Pallbearers were Albert Balsinger, Juda, Edward J. Marty, M. Albert Marty, Henry J. Marty, all of Monticello, John A. Marty, Monroe, and Wilbert H. Marty, Verona.

Voegli Funeral Service was in charge of arrangements.