

Frank Mellenberger
March 28, 1919 - Oct. 7, 1992

Frank Mellenberger, 73, Belleville, died Wednesday, Oct. 7, 1992, at St. Mary's Medical Center, Madison.

He was born on March 28, 1919, in Exeter Township, Green County, the son of John and Elizabeth Wuthrich Mellenberger. In 1937 he was united in marriage to the former Zelma Elmer at Monticello.

The couple farmed in the Monticello and Belleville area until 1975 when they retired and moved to Belleville. Frank was an avid bowler and enjoyed fishing and hunting with his life long friends.

He was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Paoli.

Survivors include his wife, Zelma, Belleville; a son, Roger (Marge) Mellenberger, Okemos, Mich.; two daughters, Karen (Stephen J.) Gmur, New Glarus, Debra (Jeff) Austin, Green Bay; a sister, Mrs. Lillian Herfel, Verona; and seven grandchildren, Rodney, Michelle, Matthew and Ann Mellenberger, Lisa Heller, Erin and Gregory Gmur.

Preceding him in death were his parents; five brothers, three sisters; and a great-grandson, Derek Mitchell Heller.

Funeral services were held Saturday at the First United Church of Christ, Belleville, with the Pastor Don Nelson officiating with burial in the Belleville Cemetery.
