

Dora L. Meyers
Sept. 19, 1905 - Aug. 18, 1981

Mrs. Dora L. Meyers, 75, Monroe, died Tuesday, Aug. 18, 1981, in St. Clare Hospital after a lingering illness.

She was born in Dutch Hollow in Green County on Sept. 19, 1905, to Gottlieb and Ida Boss Siegenthaler. She attended Dutch Hollow rural school,

She moved to South Dakota when she was young and married Albert G. Ufken. there on Nov. 1, 1924. He died on July 1, 1932. She moved to Green county in 1940 and married Edward Meyers in Dubuque on April 28, 1941. They farmed in the Juda and Monticello areas and he died on March 27, 1947.

She has lived in Monroe since 1965 and worked at Oaktron until retiring. She was a member of Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello.

Survivors include two sons, Alfred Ufken, Rt. 2, Monticello, and Earl Ufken, Rt. 2, Monroe; four daughters, Mrs. Erwin (Ardellis) Rufener, Rt. 1, Argyle. Mrs. Emil (Lea Ann) Pillath, Lena, Wis., Mrs. Jo Ann Craft, Rockford, Ill., Mrs. Robert (Jacqueline) Ellingson, Poplar Grove, Ill., one brother, Paul Siegenthaler, Plainview Minn.; three sisters, Mrs. Helen Johnson, Huron, S.D., Mrs. Ida Shipporeit, Norfolk, Neb. and Agnus Siegenthaler, Rockford, Ill.; 21 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents, her husbands, two sons, one in infancy and Eugene Ufken, Oct. 1970, and one brother, Herman Siegenthaler in 1977.

Funeral services were held Friday at 1:30 p.m. in the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello, with the Rev. Charles G. Workman, officiating. Burial was in the Greenwood Cemetery, Monroe.

Pallbearers were grandsons, Paul Rufener, Argyle; Daniel Ufken, New Glarus; Thomas Ufken, Rock City, Ill; Michael Ufken, Davis, Ill.; Wayne Ufken, Monticello, and Gene Jacobson, grandson-in-law, Monroe.