

Ralph Byrd Nottingham
June 27, 1916 - August 27, 1999

Ralph Byrd Nottingham, born June 27, 1916 in Lafayette, IN, passed on August 27, 1999 at his home in Pompano Beach, FL.

He held two masters degrees from Wayne State University and was pursuing a doctorate at Columbia University when World War II began. He even worked for the Naval Ordnance Law in Washington. After the war he worked as an engineer in Ohio, MD, and FL. He went on to practice speech pathology followed by owning a tobacco & then a book store locally. He enjoyed working on his computer, reading and writing.

He is survived by his wife, Gwendolyn, daughters Ellen, Jane & Alice, 4 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.

Note: He is interred in Monticello, Highland cemetery, where his parents are buried.