

August M. Pearson
Sept. 17, 1890 - February 6, 1949
A. M. Pearson, Monticello, Dies

August M. Pearson, 58, Monticello, died at 4:30 p. m. yesterday in St. Clare hospital after an illness of three months.

Mr. Pearson was born Sept. 17, 1890, the son of Swann and Marie Pearson, in Welch, Minn. He attended the Welch schools and was married in Red Wing, Minn., to Ella Louise Erickson in 1917. They lived in Red Wing, Minn., and in South Dakota before moving to Monticello in 1936, where he was employed as a mechanic and plumber for the Wilbert Wichser implement shop.

He is survived by his mother, his wife, three sons, Kenneth W. and Donald C., both of Beloit, and Lloyd E. at home; one brother, Ruben Pearson, Red Wing; and two sisters, Mrs. Esther Holmes and Mrs. Harry S. Peterson, of Red Wing. He was preceded in death by his father.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the Voegeli funeral home, Monticello, with Rev. A. R. Achtemeier officiating. Burial will be in Highland cemetery.
