

Poarter Pratt
1813 - Nov, 18, 1853

In 1840, Poarter Pratt married Mary Parcell, the daughter of Filamon & Mary (Sarch) Parcell, in Mercer County, Ohio.

They came to Green County, Wisconsin in 1844, settling on a farm near Monticello where Mr. Pratt died in November of 1853.

Five children were born to them: Oliver, a soldier in the 5th Wisconsin Battery; Ruth Hulda who died before her fourteenth birthday; Mary Malissa who married Sidney Brayton; Nancy; and James who was born shortly after his father's death and came to manage the farm.

Mr. Porter was influential in the formation of the old Monticello Cemetery.
