

Erma I. Prisk

Jan. 4, 1909 - Dec. 14, 1981

Mrs. Willard (Erma I.) Prisk, 72, Monticello, died Dec. 14, 1981, in Pleasant View Nursing Home, Monroe, where she had been a patient since May 1. Death followed a long illness.

Born in Exeter Township, Green County, on Jan. 4, 1909, she was the daughter of Herman and Ida Witt Klitzman. She attended Exeter Rural School and graduated from Albany High School and the Green County Normal School. She taught in rural schools in the Monticello and Albany areas.

She was married to Willard D. Prisk on June 16, 1931, in the Albany church parsonage by the late Rev. Snow. Mr. Prisk died July 16, 1981. She had been employed for a time at the Farm Bureau Office in Monticello.

Mrs. Prisk was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello, and its Ladies Aid and Missionary Society.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Douglas (Joyce) Stephenson, Albany; a son, Wayne D., rural Monroe; one brother, Clifford H. Klitzman, Monticello; one sister, Mrs. Alvin Joranlien, Evansville; six grandchildren, three step-grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Preceding her in death were her husband, her parents and a son, Nathan, in 1940.

Funeral services were held today (Wednesday) Dec. 16, in Zwingli Church. Rev. Charles G. Workman officiated and burial was in Highland sCemetery, Monticello, Pallbearers were two grandsons, Terry Allan and Daniel Stephenson, Albany, and nephews, Glenn R. Brewer, Evansville, Harlan D. Rabe, Brodhead, and Darrell Prisk Sr., Ft. Atkinson.