

Carrie Schuler
June 25, 1893 - Jan. 18, 1968
Mrs. Schuler Succumbs at 74

MONTICELLO (Times Special) — Mrs. F. W. Schuler, 74, Exeter Township, died at 10:20 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 18, in University Hospitals. She had been ill since May and was hospitalized seven times.

The former Carrie Freitag was born in the village of Monticello June 25, 1893, a daughter of Henry and Ursula Blumer Freitag. She attended Monticello High School. On May 31, 1918, she was married, in Freeport, to Frederick William Schuler. After their marriage they lived in Monroe and in 1925 moved to Madison where he was a teacher at West High until retiring in 1959. At that time they built a new house on Route 1, Monticello.

Mrs. Schuler was a member of Zwingli United Church of Christ and its Aid Society and of the Wallace Homemakers Club.

Surviving are her husband; two sons, Carl U., Bellingham, Wash., and Frederic W., Santa Barbara, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Bagley, Albany, and Mrs. Fred (Lydia) Moser, Monticello, and seven grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; three brothers, Jacob, Henry and Edward Freitag, and four sisters, Mrs. Rosa Duerst, Dayton, O.; Mrs. Mary Gottier, Brodhead; and Mrs. Jacob J. Hefty and Mrs. Casper Zentner, Monticello.

Funeral services will be at 1:30 p.m. Monday, Jan. 22, in Zwingli Church. Rev. J. Allan Mittler is to officiate, with burial in Highland Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Voegeli Funeral Home Sunday afternoon and evening.