Mrs. Siegenthaler Rites Held Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Gottlieb Siegenthaler, 75 years of age, Monticello, who passed away Saturday evening at the Masshardt Nursing home, Monroe, where she had been the past six and one-half years, were held at 2 Tuesday afternoon at the Voegeli funeral home here.

The Rev. Paul C. Kehle, pastor of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church, Monroe, of which Mrs. Siegenthaler was a member, officiated. Burial was in Highland cemetery.

Pallbearers were Ervin Hauri, Beloit, Robert Hauri, Jr., Brodhead, Herman Siegenthaler and John Vogel, Monroe, Erwin Rufener and John Wettach, Monticello.

Mrs. Siegenthaler had been bedfast for the past seven and one-half years.

Rose Scherler was born at Thue, Switzerland, July 23, 1877. She came to the United States in 1903 and on April 14, 1904, she was united in marriage to Gottlieb Siegenthaler, the ceremony taking place in Rockford, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Siegenthaler farmed in Green county until 1920 and then moved to South Dakota, where they farmed until 1932. They returned to Green county at that time and since 1945 they have lived with a son, Glenn, on the old Baltz Hoesly farm, a mile north of Monticello.

Surviving are the husband; two daughters, Mrs. Merle Simpson, Idaho Falls, Idaho, and Mrs. Thomas Gaughan, Monroe; three sons, Walter, Woonsocket, S. D., Erwin, Salem, Ore., and Glenn, Monticello; one brother, Arnold, San Diego, Calif.; two sisters in Switzerland; 16 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.
