

GORDON A. SMITH

Gordon A. Smith, a former longtime resident of rural Monticello, passed away November 21, 2002 at his home on Camano Island, Washington. Farming, family, church, hard work, and love of the land were his passions in life. Prior to his retirement, Gordon was a successful and innovative grain farmer, following many years of dairy farming.

He is lovingly missed by his wife, Barbara, Camano Island, WA; two sons, Ronald G. (Barbara) Smith, Monticello and Gregory J. Smith (Deborah Krauss), Monroe; a brother, Donald E. (June) Smith, Frankfort, IL; three grandchildren, Michelle (Matthew) Brukwicki, Glenview, IL; Tracy Smith, Lynnwood, WA; and Brian Smith, Monticello; and a nephew, Mark Smith, Monroe. Many additional nephews, nieces, and cousins also survive him.

Memorials to Gordon may be made to The Gabriel House of Mt. Vernon, Washington.
