Spring Infant Funeral To Be Held Tomorrow

ALBANY (Times Special) — Services for Jody Trent Spring, 7-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen A. Spring, Albany, will be held at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow in the Sharer funeral home, Albany.

Rev. Lawrence Korback, pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic church, will officiate and burial will be in Highland cemetery, Monticello. Friends may call at the Sharer funeral home, Albany, tonight.

The infant was found dead in his crib about 10:15 a.m. yesterday by the father who is employed at the Fisher Body Co. in Janesville during the night and remains home with the children during the day. Mrs. Spring, a rural teacher at the Attica school attends summer classes at Platteville State College and was not aware of the child's death until she returned from Platteville during the noon hour.

Authorities have ruled that death was caused by pneumonia. An autopsy was performed.

Survivors include the parents, one sister, Joelene, 4; one brother, Joel, 1 1/2; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spring, Monticello; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nipple, Albany; two great-grandmothers, Mrs. Linnie Teale and Mrs. John Zurfluh Sr., both of Albany, and a great-great-grandmother, Mrs. George Teale, Sarona, who is 100 years old and a former resident of the Albany area.
