FORMER MONTICELLO RESIDENT DIES AT MADISON

Henry Staedtler, for many years a resident, of Monticello, passed away at the Wisconsin General Hospital, at Madison, where he had been a patient for two months suffering from a complication of diseases last Wednesday.

Mr. Staedtler formerly owned and operated the old Monticello mill. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Staedtler. He and his family left Monticello, several years ago, first moving to Spring Green and then to Madison.

Funeral services were conducted at the Reformed church, at Monticello, on Saturday afternoon. Rev. A. Muehlmeier conducted the services. Burial was at Monticello.
