

Barbara Stauffacher

August 12, 1901 - August 5, 1962

Mrs. Stauffacher, 60, Dies Early Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. Henry Stauffacher, 60 years of age, Mt. Pleasant township, who died at 7:11 a. m. Sunday at the St. Clare hospital, Monroe, after a lingering illness of several years duration, were held at at 2 Wednesday afternoon in the Zwingli United Church of Christ here.

The Rev. J. Allan Mittler, church pastor, officiated, and interment was in Highland cemetery. Pallbearers were Henry Opferman, Walter Schindler, New Glarus, Fred Schindler, Jr., Belleville, Henry L. Schmid, Monroe, Harold Stauffacher, Granton, and Walter Stauffacher, St. Louis, Mo.

Barbara Steiner, daughter of Peter R. and Barbara Klassy Steiner, was born on a farm in Exeter township, Aug. 12, 1901. She attended the Ross rural school and the New Glarus public schools. On Feb. 7, 1922, she was united in marriage to Henry Stauffacher in the parsonage of the Swiss Church, New Glarus. They had always lived in Mt. Pleasant township.

Mrs. Stauffacher was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello.

Surviving are her husband; one son, Kenneth H., Mt. Pleasant township; two daughter, Mrs. Royal (Helen) Hawkins, and Mrs. Orville I. (Doris) Gilbertson, and one grandson, all in Mt. Pleasant township; two sisters, Mrs. Fred Altman, Monroe, and Mrs. Oscar J. Wyss, Lena, Ill. She was preceded in death by her mother in 1943, her father in 1947, and one niece, Elizabeth Altman, in 1936.