

Amelia "Mollie" Thomas

1889 - Apr. 12, 1973

MONROE —Mrs. Mollie Thomas, 84, died Thursday (Apr. 12, 1973) in a nursing home after a long illness.

The former Mollie Theiler was born in Washington Township and lived most of her life in the Monroe area. She was married to Hallet D. Thomas in 1947. He died in 1964.

Surviving are two step-sons, D. H., Rockford, Ill.; and B. H., Monroe; three brothers, Edwin Theiler, Monroe; Fred Theiler, Browntown; and Ted Theiler, Milton; and a sister, Mrs. Julia Sullivan, Monroe.

Services were at 1:30 p.m. Monday, April 16, in Shriner - Neushwander Funeral Home. Rev. W. C. Koehler of St. John's United Church of Christ officiated.

Ben Blaser sang "How Great Thou Art," with Mrs. Albert R. Buri as organist.

Burial was in the Washington Reformation Church Cemetery, rural Monticello.

Nephews were pallbearers: Willis Theiler, Marvin and Michael Stauffacher, and Wilbur Wells, all of Browntown; Thomas Theiler, Juda, and Marvin Marty, New Glarus.