

Alfred Voegeli
1887 - September 28, 1974

Alfred Voegeli, 87, a well-known Monroe resident, died Saturday, September 28, at the Monroe Manor Nursing Home. He had been in failing health for the past three weeks and was admitted to the Manor on September 5.

Voegeli was born in Green County in 1887. His parents were Baltz and Rosa Figi Voegeli. In 1911 he married Theresa Marie Bontly in Monticello. He ran a meat market in Monticello. They stayed in Monticello until 1926 when they moved to Monroe where he operated a furniture store. In later years, he operated a retail gas station until retiring in 1960.

Voegeli is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Willard W. (Josephine) Waeffler, Evansville, Wis, and Mrs. Nathan (Helen) A. Theiler, Monroe and four grandchildren. Also surviving him are three brothers, Emil G. and Leon A. Voegeli, Monticello and Edward of Miami Beach, Florida.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, who died in 1970; a sister who died as young girl, and a brother Jack who died in 1954.

Funeral services were Tuesday at St. John's Church, interment was in Highland Cemetery, Monticello. Voegeli Funeral Service was in charge of arrangements.