William Wirth Dies at Madison

William F. Wirth, 64, Madison, father of Mrs. Walter Tertin of Monroe, died early this morning in the Madison General hospital after a long illness. He had been hospitalized a month. His Madison residence was at 816 Chandler street.

Mr. Wirth, a former Monticello resident, was the son of John and Anna Babler Wirth. He was first married to Alma Cora Blum, who died in April 1939. During her lifetime they lived in Monticello and Janesville. Mr. Wirth then went to Madison where he was employed by Kroger's and for the past 10 years had been maintenance man at Madison General hospital.

Surviving are his wife, the former Ivadena Harwood; a son, Frederick, Janesville; the daughter in Monroe; two brothers, Ernest and Leslie, Janesville; two sisters, Mmes. Jacob E. Blum and Anna Dickerson, both of Janesville, and two grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a sister and two children, all in infancy, and a brother, Herman J. Wirth, Sept. 29, 1949. Herman Wirth was a Monticello police officer for many years.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in the Voegeli funeral home. Rev. J. Allan Mittler, pastor of Zwingli United Church of Christ, is to officiate.

Voegeli funeral home, Monticello, is in charge, with arrangements pending.

NOTE: Interred in Highland cemetery, Monticello.
