

Dr. Raymond A. Woodruff

Jan. 17, 1915 - Oct. 12 1990

Dr. Raymond A. Woodruff, Monticello, died suddenly Oct. 12 1990, at the home of his daughter, Shirley Hill, in Claremore, Okla. He was born on Jan. 17, 1915, the son of Howard and Leda (Ganung) Woodruff. Dr. Woodruff was a graduate of Albion High School and of Cornell University Veterinarian College, Class of 1941. He married Geraldine Everett on Aug. 16, 1939.

He was a member of the Alpha Psi Fraternity, and an Honorary Member of the Wisconsin Veterinarian Association. He was a WW II Captain in the Veterinarian Corps from 1942 until 1945. He was a 42-year member of the Amstutz-Marty Legion Post #256, where he was Past Commander and Adjutant. He was an Honorary Member of the Monticello Fire Department and a former president of the Monticello Village Board.

Survivors include his wife, Geraldine; three daughters, Shirley Hill, Claremore, Okla., Judy Blanchard, Slidell, La., and Heidi Sydnor, Middleton; three sons, John Woodruff, Madison, Dr. Kenneth Woodruff, LaCrosse, and Dr. Donald Woodruff, Mauston; 15 grandchildren; a great-grandson; a sister, Ruth Kennedy, New York; and two brothers, Gerald and Emery, New York.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two brothers, Victor and Clayton; and in 1986, a son, Dr. Robert E. Woodruff.

The family received friends at the Merrill-Grinnell Funeral Home in Albion, New York, where funeral services were held on Tuesday, Oct. 16. Interment was in Mount Albion Cemetery.