

Virgil L. Zimmerman
April 16, 1910 – Nov. 6, 1984

Virgil L. Zimmerman, 74, a native of Attica, died at his home in Monticello on Tuesday, Nov. 6.

He was born in Mr. Pleasant Township on April 16, 1910, the son of E. G. and Edna Lewis Zimmerman. He attended Attica rural school and had farmed in Attica with his parents. He moved to Monticello in 1980. He was well known around the Attica farming area as “Scrooge.”

He was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello. Among survivors are a sister, Mrs. Doris Gaarder, Albany; Wilma Zimmerman, Monticello; Wanda Feller, Monticello; Sharon Holmes, Franktown, Colo.; Jacquelyn Howard, Evansville; Kurtis Gaarder, Madison, and Roger Zimmerman, DeKalb, Ill.

Preceding him in death were his father, Aug. 26, 1961; his mother Jan. 1, 1972, and one brother, Wilbur, June 29, 1977.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Nov. 13, at Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello. Rev. Don Nelson officiated and burial was in Highland Cemetery.