

Douglas John Adamson
Feb. 17, 1960 - Feb. 16, 1964
Adamson Son Taken by Death

Douglas John Adamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verlyn G. Adamson, Madison, former Monticello residents, died at 7 last night in a Madison hospital after a long illness. The child would have been four years old today.

Douglas John, son of Verlyn G. and Judith Babler Adamson, was born at St. Clare hospital, Monroe, Feb. 17, 1960.

Surviving are the parents, 921 Magnolia Lane, Madison; the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Babler and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Adamson, all of Monticello, and the maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Rose Sippel, Monroe; paternal great-grandparents, J. A. Adamson, Butte, Neb., and Mrs. Clara Stanford, Verdel, Neb.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in Zwingli United Church of Christ, with Rev. J. Allan Mittler officiating. Burial will be in Highland cemetery. Friends may call after 7 p.m. tomorrow at the funeral home.

Pallbearers for Douglas John Adamson will be uncles. They include: Donald Adamson, Monticello, Robert Babler, Monroe, Norton Strommen, Madison and Gordon Schultz, Albany.