

Bertha (Buehl) Andree

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. —Bertha (Buehl) Andree, 58, of South San Francisco, Calif., died Monday, March 4, 1985, of a heart attack. She was the sister of Mrs. Walter (Gladys) Williams of Brodhead.

Born May 18, 1926, at Monticello, she was the daughter of William and Ada (Legler) Buehl. She attended Monticello schools and Marquette University. Nov. 17, 1945, she was married to William Miller. They lived in Covington, Ky., and Batavia, Ohio, until his death on July 17, 1970.

She resided in South San Francisco for the past eight years and was employed by Ecker Marketing and Research. Sept. 12, 1984, she married Robert Andree.

Survivors include her husband Robert; two sons, Michael Miller, Camp Springs, Md., and Timothy Miller, Akron, Ohio; a daughter, Mrs. Michael (Mary) Burkholder, Riverside, Calif.; a brother, William Buehl, Jefferson; sister, Mrs. Walter (Gladys) Williams, Brodhead; six grandchildren and two step-grandchildren.

Preceding her in death were her parents, her first husband and an infant son.

Memorial services, held in San Francisco near Angel Island, were conducted by the Neptune Society.