

John C. Babler

June 1, 1894 - 1973

John C. Babler, 78, Dies Suddenly

Funeral services for John C. Babler, 78 years of age, resident of Monticello for more than 30 years, who died very suddenly and unexpectedly of an apparent heart attack . at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at his home, were held at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon in the Zwingli United Church of Christ.

The Rev. Charles G. Workman, church pastor, officiated and burial was in Highland cemetery.

Mr. Babler was born June 1, 1894, in Iowa, the son of Conrad and Elizabeth Rhyner Baebler. He came to Wisconsin as a small child with his family. He attended rural school in Mt. Pleasant township.

On April 28, 1939, he was married in the Zwingli church by the Rev. A. R. Achtemeier to Alma Heiserman, of Gary, S. D.. a registered nurse who is still on the staff at the St. Clare hospital, Monroe.

Since their marriage they have always resided in their present home in Monticello. He was a milk hauler until 1961 and then was a maintenance worker at the Karlen & Sons Ford garage.

He was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, where he was confirmed.

He is survived by his wife; a son, Roger A. a Monticello business man; a daughter, Mrs. Raymond (Ruth Ann) Robertson, Greendale; one sister, Mrs. Adam (Anna) Pancake, Palmyra, and a granddaughter, Diana Robertson.

Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, Henry V. Baebler, May 30, 1969.