

Mrs. G.W. Bleiler Stricken at Home

(Mar. 7, 1950)

Mrs. George W. Bleiler, 67, of Adams township died last evening at 9:15 in her home of chronic complications. She had been ailing the past three years.

The former Verena Lydia (Fannie) Bidlingmaier was born in Washington township March 25, 1883, the daughter of Michael and Mary Isely Bidlingmaier. She attended Purcell school in Washington township and was confirmed in Washington Reformed church. Her marriage to George Bleiler took place Sept. 4, 1905, in Washington township. She lived on the present farm ever since.

In addition to the husband, survivors include two children, Mrs. Paul Shirley and Almond Bleiler of Argyle; four brothers, George and William Bidlingmaier of Monroe, Albert Bidlingmaier of Winslow and Edward Bidlingmaier of Argyle; three sisters, Mmes. Emil Elmer, Henry Loveland and William E. Klassy, all of Monticello.

Preceding her in death were her parents, a brother, Carl. and sister, Ida.

Services will be Thursday. Rev. Paul C. Kehle will officiate and burial will be in Greenwood cemetery. Further arrangements as to time and place of the funeral are pending.