

Emma Knight-Clarke

30 May 1832 - 5 Aug 1918

Mrs. Emma Clarke, for more than half a century a resident of this village and immediate, passed away at her home on Railroad avenue at 12 o'clock Monday night, following a period of failing health which had its inception a number of months ago.

Emma Wood was born in New York and came to Green County when a young girl. She married Ralsey Knight, a farmer, who was born 12 Oct 1815, N.Y. and died 1897 in Mt. Pleasant, Green Co., WI. Following his death Emma married widower, Jabez Clarke, 18 April 1900.

The only near relatives surviving her are two grandchildren, Miss Carrie Knight, Monroe, and Charles Knight of Coggon, Iowa.

Funeral services will be held at the Advent Christian Church at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, preceded by brief services at the house.
