

Amelia Cleveland
July 1, 1852 - March 12, 1893

Died--At her home in Attica, March 12, 1893, Mrs. B. Cleveland, aged 40 years.

Amelia Gibson was born in Montreal, Canada; moved to Elgin, Illinois with her parents, who died when she was two years of age. She came with her uncle, Charles Northfoss, to Beloit, Wis., where she was adopted by Mrs. Ordell, with whom she lived until 1874, when she was joined in marriage too B. Cleveland by Rev. Magelson. They moved to Attica in 1880, where she held the position of post mistress for several years, and was a regular correspondent to the Albany Vindicator.

Mrs. Cleveland was the mother of 7 children, 5 of whom survive her.

She had a host of friends and was beloved by all who knew her. She was a member of the Methodist Church, which bell was tolled for the first time for her, and as a dutiful wife, mother and consistent, earnest, devoted Christian her life was a beautiful model of the highest type.

The funeral services, conducted by the Rev. H. A. Rogers of Albany, were attended by nearly 200 people.
